WORLD Channel Honors Veterans Day this November

October 29, 2019 – Facing many challenges, veterans often feel the journey home is not easy. Throughout November, WORLD Channel aims to bring attention to films featuring veterans from different backgrounds and generations learning to cope, love and live as civilians again.

“The bravery and sacrifice of soldiers during war has been documented across all media. The long road home -- returning to lives left behind -- has become a lonely struggle for too many,” said WGBH and WORLD Channel General Manager Liz Cheng. “This month, WORLD films detail the challenges and tremendous resilience as veterans rebuild their lives after enduring physical, mental and emotional traumas.”

For November WORLD documentaries include the following.

- America ReFramed: Surviving Home follows four U.S military veterans from different generations over an eight-year period as they rebuild their lives after war. Co-directed by Jillian Moul and Matthew Moul, the film documents the incredible stories of each veteran as they discover unique ways to overcome post-war challenges, while transforming their lives and continuing to help others.
Airs Tuesday, November 5 at 8/7c on WORLD Channel.
- Local U.S.A: Veterans Coming Home - Health highlights the challenges veterans – those with physical and/or mental wounds – face in transitioning from military to civilian life. Stories include a program training both veterans and shelter dogs who are working together to combat the effects of PTSD, Traumatic Brain Injury and Military Sexual Abuse, and the recovery of a veteran after being physically injured as a Taekwondo Grandmaster. Airs Monday, November 11 at 9/8c on WORLD Channel.
- Local U.S.A: Veterans Coming Home – Careers showcases veterans finding new career paths and adapting to the civilian work world. Many discover that skills learned in the military help them as project leaders and entrepreneurs while others find work in public service and activism. The stories featured include the successes and stumbling blocks of a post-military career and how a formal Rear Admiral is using her leadership skills to save her community from rising waters.
Airs Monday, November 4 at 9/8c on WORLD Channel.
